

Councilman LaValle Shares "Coffee with a Cop" at Selden Bagels Your Way

posted on 7/5/2017 5:04:00 PM

Farmingville, NY – On June 22, Councilman Kevin LaValle was joined by Suffolk County Legislator Tom Muratore and officers from the Suffolk County Police Department (SCPD) for a "Coffee with a Cop" event at Selden Bagels Your Way. "Coffee with A Cop" was launched in Hawthorne, California in 2011 when members of the Hawthorne Police Department were looking for ways to interact more successfully with the citizens they served each day. The key to the growing success of the "Coffee with a Cop" program is that it opens the door for interactions outside of the crisis situations that typically bring law enforcement officers and community members together.

"Coffee with a Cop is a great program," said Councilman LaValle. "It helps to encourage communication between the police, residents and business owners and creates a stronger bond that is beneficial to all. I thank Selden Bagels Your Way for hosting us and the Suffolk County Police Department for all they do to keep Brookhaven safe."

Pictured left to right are Councilman LaValle, SCPD 6th Precinct COPE Officers Todd Bradshaw and Sgt. Walter Langdon, Selden Bagels Your Way owner Desiree Ragusa, SCPD Community Liaison Officer Will Zieman, Legislator Tom Muratore and School Resource Officer Keith Murphy.

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor

One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone 631-451-6595